2. NEW BUSINESS: President Carey

a) Ordinance 2013-08 Borrowing

David Jenkins made the first motion to approve the Ordinance 2013-08, seconded by Roy Davis, motion passed 6-0.

b) Keep Joe Laguzzi on payroll as a part-timer

Roy Davis made the first motion to keep Mr. Laguzzi on the payroll as a part time representative for the Dare program only, seconded by Herman Johnson, vote was not unanimous with David Jenkins, Dominic Scott, Pat Williams and Gerrie Carey opposing the vote. New motion Roy Davis made a motion to keep Joe Laguzzi on the payroll as a Dare representative and a part time policeman for Clarks Summit Borough, seconded by David Jenkins, vote was unanimous 5-1 with Herman Johnson voting nay.

Dominic Scott stated that he made a speech to the Rotary for the benches for Veterans Park. The Rotary has donated $500 for that purpose. Pat Williams and Herman Johnson thanked Dominic Scott and the Rotary. A picture was taken as the check was presented.

Public Comment: Debbie Wilensky, Linden Street discussed the bond issue for paving in town. She wasn't sure if Linden Street is on the list for paving. Ms. Wilensky stated that Linden Street is patched up and it is a street that really could be looked at for paving. Linden Street services the school district very much; it's a good representation of town for all of the football games. It would be a great to have Linden Street on the paving list.
